Introduction

Pupil 1

CHILDREN

Cheep-cheep! Why do the birds sing?

Cheep-cheep! Why do the birds sing?

Cheep-cheep! The birds all sing,

Cheep-cheep! Because it's spring.

Pupil 2

SPRING

In the spring, in the spring,

Sweet and fresh is everything.

Winter winds are no more blowing,

In the fields all is growing.

In the spring, in the spring,

Sweet and fresh is everything.

Pupil 3

CHILDREN

Always in spring

We dance and sing

We splash through showers

And gather wild flowers.

Presenter 1. Good morning, dear guests, mothers, grandmothers, teachers and pupils!

Presenter 2. We are very glad to see you here today! Today is the 8th of March. We wish you all to be happy and merry all year.

Presenter 1. We'd like to tell you the reason of our meeting.

Presenter 2. What do you know about this holiday?

Pupil 4. We have a tradition of celebrating Women's Day. It is always on the 8th of March.

Pupil 5. It is a holiday of all women.

Pupil 6. On this day people visit their mothers, grandmothers and give them small presents or flowers.

Pupil 7. On his day mothers usually have little work or no work at all, because everyone in the family tries to make a day off for their mothers and grandmothers.

Presenter 1. So we decided to make this day a holiday for you, our dear. Let's start with fun.

Presenter 2. Dear children, do you know any poems about mothers?

Pupil 8

Our dear, dear mothers!
We love you very much.
We want you to be happy
On the 8th of March

Pupil 9

That is your mother.
I agree, she is fine.
You love your mother,
And I love mine!

Pupil 10

I know a face, a lovely face
As full of beauty as of grace;
A face of pleasure and of smile;
In darkness it gives light.

Pupil 11

A face that is itself like joy;
To see it - I'm a happy boy.
And I have a joy that have no other,
This lovely woman is my mother!

Pupil 12

It is my mother. Her name is...
She is very nice.
She has fair hair and blue eyes.
I love my mother very much.

Pupil 13

I've folded all my laundry and put it in the drawer.
I've changed my linen, made my bed,
and swept my bedroom floor.

Pupil 14

I've emptied out the garbage
and fixed tomorrow's lunch.
I've baked some cookies for dessert
and given Dad a munch.

Pupil 15

I've searched the house for pencils and sharpened every one.
There are so many things to do
when all work must be done.

Presenter 1. It is very warm here.

Presenter 2. It is so because all our mothers have come to our holiday. They brought warmth and love with them.

Pupil 1

One, one, one — I love the sun.
Two, two, two — I love my mummy too!
Three, three, three — my mummy loves me.
Four, four, four — I love her more and more.
I count from one — I love the sun.
I count to four — I love my mummy more.

Pupil 2

Mother's Day will soon be here,
And I can hardly wait.
I'll make a little present, beautiful
And nice.
Something very pleasant for my Mother's eyes.

(Children give their presents for their mothers)

Thumbelina. What are you doing here?

Presenter 1. We are greeting our mothers.

Thumbelina. I like presents. I want to take part in your holiday.

Presenter 2. What can you do?

Presenter 1. Do you know any poems or songs?

Presenter 2. Can you dance or hop?

Thumbelina. I cannot do anything. I am very little. But what about you? What do you do for your mothers? Do you help your grandmothers?

Pupil 3

There are four little words
That can help you a lot.
When you hurt your mother,
On purpose or not.

Pupil 4

So say the four words,
Don't wait too long.
If you've hurt your mother,
Say "I'm sorry, I'm wrong."

Pupil 5

Help your mother to lay the table,
Put a knife, a fork and a spoon.
Help your mother to lay the table

Every afternoon.

Pupil 6

Help your mother to clean the table,
Take the knife and the fork away.
Help your mother to clean the table
Morning, night and day.

Thumbelina. It's good, I've got a task for you.

{Children get cards with the statements and agree or disagree with them.}

I always help to wash the floor. – (That's right.)

I help to clean my room. –

I help to eat a cake. – (That's wrong)

I help to sleep at night. –

Presenter 1. On Mother's Day we also remember our grandmothers. They are our best friends too. Who are grandmothers for us?

Pupil 13

My Granny is a special gift,
A special gift that
God gave to me.
I'd be lost and lonely without her,
If God took her away, you see.

Pupil 14

I saw this rose and swiftly knew
It was just the one to give to you.
I gathered leaves and flowers too,
Then made this basket just for you.
For each bright flower's here to say
My wish to you: Happy Mother's Day!

Presenter 2. And not just today. We want you to be happy every day!

Pupil 14

The trees of the forest,
The flowers in the field,
The birds on the branches,
The fish of the sea,

Pupil 15

The rocks and the mountains,
The rivers that flow,
The rain and the sunshine,
The ice and the snow,

Pupil 16

The cornfields all yellow,
The sky of deep blue,
The sweetness and beauty
Of life are for you.

Presenter 2. Be always happy, dear mothers and grandmothers!

All together. Thank you for coming! Good bye!
